

The Art of Good Questions

Getting Connected:

Tell me something happy from your week and something not so happy.

In ONE sentence, tell us how you are.

How have you been blessed this week?

What are you excited about this week? What are you not so sure about?

What made you laugh this week?

What has encouraged you? Fills you up?

What are you bringing into the room tonight/today?

STAGE MANUAL/Scripture Discussion questions:

Look at pages Let's read it together again to refresh ourselves. What stands out to you now? What made you choose that?

What do you find yourself thinking about?

Our reading this week has been about Do you recall a time when you ...? What do you remember?

Take a look at page ...? What stands out to you?

What excites you about ...? What concerns you?

How would you rate yourself with ...? What made you select that rating?

What do you find yourself identifying with?

Accountability questions:

What is helping you keep company with God?

What do you find yourself praying about?

When do you best hear God?

Who would you consider your teacher?

How are you experiencing God these days?

What is shaping you?

Formative Questions:

What are you taking home with you tonight/today?

What are you finding yourself thinking about?

Tell me more....
